Happy New Year from Al'z Place!

Welcome to January 2025! We hope this new year brings happiness, health, and joy to all our clients, caregivers, and team members. As we start fresh, we're excited to share a month filled with engaging activities, lively entertainment, and meaningful connections.

Please note that Al'z Place will be closed on Wednesday, January 1, in observance of New Year's Day, and again on Monday, January 20, for Martin Luther King Jr. Day. We encourage you to plan accordingly and enjoy these special holidays with your loved ones.

This month, we're thrilled to host a variety of talented musical guests who will inspire and uplift us. Joining us are Brother's Too, the Ukulele Club, the harmonious SweetNotes, the lively Gainesville International Folk Dancers, and the ever-energetic Random Kats. These performers always bring an extra spark to our days, and we can't wait to enjoy their talents together.

Let's make this January one to remember! Stay tuned for more updates, activities, and moments to celebrate as we embrace 2025 at Al'z Place.

Thank you,

The Al'z Place Staff

Medication Updates: Please inform nursing staff about any medication changes and bring a hard copy of the new medication list from all appointments or hospital visits. For new medications or any medication changes, a SIGNED order form from the MD is required.

Appointments & Vacations: Notify us of any scheduled doctor's appointments or vacation days to help with our client/staff census. We want to avoid missed days and wasted lunches.

Behavior & Falls: Communicate any behavior changes or falls to the nursing staff. We will also share any changes we observe during the program.

Emergency Outfits: Ensure all clients have two full outfits in their emergency bins, including two tops, two bottoms, undergarments, and socks.
