

TIME: Unless otherwise noted, programs will be on Thursdays from 2:30 PM to 4:00 PM

May 7th – The Maltese Falcon (Note room change for this date only)

The Driveway Theatre Project will present an old-time radio play in the Multipurpose room. This is the thriller adventure of Detective Sam Spade, who, after his partner gets killed, searches for the killer and ends up involved with a group of nefarious characters all in search of a statue of a falcon.

May 14th - How to Manage Neuropathy and Improve Your Life

Come discover practical ways to manage diabetic and other nerve pain to improve your daily comfort. Dr. Walter Johnson, a UF Health pain medicine expert will explain why neuropathy develops, how to recognize early warning signs, and what you can do to manage symptoms to support better long-term nerve health.

May 21st – How Pre Columbian Pots Tell Us Stories

By tracing pots, we can uncover stories of migration, identity and how people built renewed lives in a rapidly changing world. Anthony Farace, Ph.D. candidate, is the presenter.

May 28th - Choosing Sides: African Americans Fight for Liberty

Part 4 of a mini-series, “250 Years: Famous and Unknown Faces of The American Revolution” presented by Dr. Barbara Oberlander, Santa Fe College Emerita Professor of History. This mini-series invites you to explore the legends and lesser-known figures of our history, offering insights that foster reflection, education, and inclusivity as we commemorate this pivotal moment.

June 4th - Inalienable Rights: The Legacy of the Revolution

Donna Waller, Emerita Professor, Santa Fe College will present the finale of our series, “250 Years: Famous and Unknown Faces of The American Revolution”.

PLEASE NOTE: This concludes our 2025-2026 program year. Watch for announcements of programs beginning again on September 10, 2026.
